The University of Brighton Language Institute is recognised as a centre of excellence by the EL Gazette, and is an institutional member of the British Association of Lecturers in English for Academic Purposes (BALEAP).

All our English language programmes are accredited by the British Council, and are delivered by teachers who are highly experienced English language teachers. All teachers at the University of Brighton Language Institute are TEFLQ

Successful completion of one of our pre-sessional English language programmes will enable you to progress onto most undergraduate and postgraduate degrees at the University of Brighton without taking an additional English language test.

All students have access to University of Brighton support services, including visa support, careers guidance, academic study resources, specialist international student advice, health, disability and dyslexia support and much more.

Students also have access to libraries, media centres, computer rooms and other specialist resources.
